Q89-91 excerpt from a meeting

OK, the next topic I want to discuss is staffing. First of all, the management team, knows how hard you've all been working in the Information Technology department, and we want to say thank you. The company has grown a lot over the last year—we've doubled our number of contracts! Because of this, we've decided to hire five additional employees to help with the work load in our department. We recently posted the openings online, but uh, we're hoping to fill these positions as soon as possible. So if you can recommend anyone who meets the qualifications, please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Thanks for listening to Radio KVS. I want to remind all our listeners that our free summer concert series starts next week. The first show'll feature legendary guitarist Dimitri Phillips, performing with his band, so this will be a big event! The performance is next Wednesday in Salsbury Park, beginning at seven, but make sure you get in line early for your free ticket. Attendees can bring in their own food and drink, but certain items are prohibited. For a full list of what is allowed in the park, check out the park department Web site. And if you can't make this show, there will be many concerts throughout the summer.

Q95-97 excerpt from a meeting and a chart

Before we talk about our sales results from this year, let me say how pleased I am with the success that Susie's Online Clothing Boutique has been having. When I started the business last year, I was not sure how well it would do, but the results show that we've exceeded our goal! Of course, there's always room for improvement. We know our biggest rival is Fashion Plus, This chart compares features of the two companies. If we want to be competitive, we'll have to offer all the same services. So let's talk about what we can add to our services so that we can keep up with Fashion Plus.

98. Who is the talk intended for?

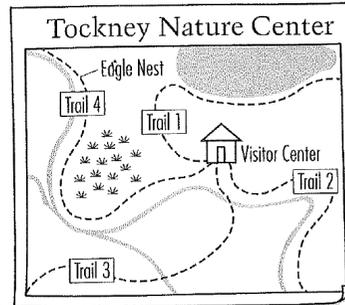

- A. Nature photographers
- B. City officials
- C. New park employees
- D. University students

99. Look at the graphic. Which trail is closed to visitors?

- A. A series of seminars on wildlife conservation
- B. A research study on a bird species
- C. An annual clean-up day
- D. A program to plant more trees

Q98-100 talk and map

Welcome to the new employee orientation at Tockney Nature Center. We're happy that you'll be guiding our bird-watching tours! Behind me there's a trail map of the Nature Center. We'll be walking down trail two so I can show you some interesting spots to take visitors. You can use the other trails as well, except for this trail right here because there's a family of bald eagles nesting nearby. For the first time, the Center's collaborating with the state university on a research project about eagles. We've positioned a live camera on one tree there, and we don't want anything to disturb the birds for the duration of the study.
